Teaching the Concept of Salvation

The concept of Salvation is one that should be taught to every age group and ability level. However, how you teach it may look very different depending on your audience. Below you will find a few ways of presenting this lesson that will appeal to various age groups.

Lesson Passage Romans 10:9-10 - “because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved.”

Tips for Teaching Preschoolers

- Use simple wording
- Incorporate movement
- Teach a song with motions
- Use visual pictures
- Make Gospel bracelets
- Use repetition to help your friends remember the key points

Tips for Teaching Elementary Schoolers

- Have them draw it out
  - Use blank paper or coloring sheets
  - Encourage them to share their drawings with a peer
- Use the Wordless Book
  - This tool uses blocks or pages of color to represent the Gospel truths
- Use online videos or YouTube
  - Saddleback kids has free online videos
- Use tangible items – ex. A giant heart cutout when talking about God’s love
- Teach the ABCs of becoming a Christian
  - Admit, Believe, Confess

Tips for Teaching Middle and High Schoolers

- Allow them to make it into a play and act it out
- Find ways for them to interact with their peers during the lesson. For example, get with a partner to practice their scripture memory
- Use games to memorize scripture
- Purchase and utilize evangelism products
- Teach about the Holy Spirit by making silly dough

Tips for Teaching Young Adults or Adults

- Allow them to teach the concept of salvation to others or help you present to the group
- Read the Bible together and independently
- Allow them to discuss the concept of salvation with their peers
- Ask deeper questions that help them apply the concepts
  - Ex. “What had God done for you today?”
